do you want to drop the car off on June 10th at the airport you will fly out of or back at the car rental location you pick it up from?
Avis will not let you drop off at a different location...you must return to the car back to where you picked it up from . We can check other car companies to see who will let you pick up from one place and return to the airport.
Please let me know ASAP...

I am assuming you want the car June 8-10...
