Title: London

I may go to London Tuesday night and arrive Wednesday morning, Oct. 20th for "The Kings Speech" events at The London Film Festival...back Saturday or Sunday, Oct. 24.

When do you come to New York? Would Andrew want to come to a screening Thursday at Film Festival or Harvey's private screening Friday for 100 people. (Since the film is a loving portrait of his grandfather, he may have to go thru the palace. They requested a print and got one.)

My office is sending all the invites to our events for next week asap.
xoxo Peg
