Dear Jeffrey,

Hope everything is well with you!

I have learnt loads so far in my Osteopathy course and every day is so much fun.

I really am looking forward to helping others as an osteopath in the near future.

This is so right for me and my professional goals.

The training hours I am undertaking as a Pilates rehabilitation instructor in a studio, as much as I can, give me great insight and depth in the body movement and rehabilitation field.

So, in a nutshell, I am very happy with what I am doing!

However, I find it very difficult to be financially independent while doing the Osteopathy course as it demands really full-time dedication. So, some months ago, I had to start asking money for Peter again for my own expenses which really is not easy for me!

I woke up today and felt I could say this to you. I hope you don't mind me coming back to you for some extra financial help before the beginning of the second year of Osteopathy.

I wouldn't like this to get in between my friendship and respect for you.

I hope you don't mind me asking.

Best , Reinaldo
