Title: Re: In Miami recovering from not sure what. Came back sicker than a dog from China and have been in bed not moving but finally on the road to recovery. Everyone thinks I had/have swine flu. Dealing w/boat today that is still in the yard. Leaving for NY tom morning and back here week after for week or so. Had an offer on the house finally..11 and on top the guy want every stick of furniture down to the napkins for an extra X but not determined + am doing well with AIG – without the settlement I'm at 1.5 ish and I want to settle and just walk away w/a lump sum..i'm not selling at that price but the market is moving again.
