I actually have write ups already for the barge landing and Chri=tmas Cove. Jeff's team will get out there with us next week and =ill do the bathymetric survey of this bay and he can get the design done, =nd then I would say we are two weeks from submittal to COE and we'll h=ve to wait to first week of October for CZM because of their guidelines of=only accepting permits first 5 days of the month. But we will get to=COE asap because they take longer.
